HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 1, 2009

Mr. KANJORSKI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to ask you and my esteemed colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to Mr. Albert Caswell, of Street, Maryland, who is employed as a U.S. Capitol tour guide, and SSG Earl Granville, of Scranton, Pennsylvania, a member of the U.S. Army 109th Field Artillery, Pennsylvania National Guard, who was severely wounded during deployment in Afghanistan.

Mr. Caswell met Sergeant Granville while doing volunteer work at Walter Reed Army Hospital. Mr. Caswell was deeply impressed with Sergeant Granville's devotion to military duty and subsequently wrote a poem to express his appreciation for the sacrifices citizens like Sergeant Granville make in the defense of our Nation and the freedoms we hold dear.

Madam Speaker, please join me in congratulating Mr. Caswell and Sergeant Granville. As a soldier, Sergeant Granville represents our Nation's finest and most courageous citizens, willing to venture into harm's way to protect this nation and ensure that our liberties survive and flourish. And Mr. Caswell represents the gratitude that we all share for our men and women in uniform. May we all be inspired by these two fine Americans.

The poem that Mr. Caswell wrote follows:

STANDING GUARD—IN HONOR OF SSG EARL GRANVILLE, AN AMERICAN HERO, THE PENNSYLVANIA NATIONAL GUARD, THE UNITED STATES ARMY, 28TH ID—1/109TH/INF—103RDAR

(By Albert Carey Caswell)

Standing Guard! Standing Strong!
Standing Hard! Standing long!
On Guard!
A band of brothers another world away, such burdens bear . . .
As into the face of death, they so stare!
As they Stand Guard!
Stand Strong!
As the word Hero to them so belongs . . .
And if ever I have a son, I but pray he could be like this fine one . . .
Who will stand?
And who will fall?
And who will but give their all?
Who will give up their fine lives, and strong arms and legs so freedom can thrive?

For that's only how freedom is made!
By only all those who stay, And Stand Guard!
For as long as our nation has been . . .
There have always been, such splendid men
Men, who must Stand Guard!
Men of honor, with hearts of courage full
. . . of steel over evil rule . . .
Men such as Earl Granville, from that great state of Pennsylvania so true . . .
Men of such faith, who death so view . . .
Who for all of us go off to war . . .
But, for this our Country Tis of Thee . . .
such burdens bore!
All for our freedom, to insure . . .
As They Stand Guard . . .
With but their fine hearts of courage, pure!
Standing strong, all the more . . .
Who but with only their most heroic hearts

Right all of those wrongs, as is their part!
And all of the ones, who come back home
Without arms and legs, as to them such beautiful hearts belong . . .
As we Witness their most heroic songs.
Teaching us all how faith stands strong.
As up from the ashes they do rise . . .
With but tears of valor all in their eyes . . .
As but the full measure of the word hero comprised . . .
Standing Strong, while blessing all our lives
As they reach us . . . as they teach us . . .
As to great heights their heart's beseech us
As on this day Earl, you so teach us . . .
Even the Angels up in heaven, Wipe the tears
from their eyes . . .
For in life, what do we so stand for?
And for what, will we so rise?
To face death, when all upon us so much relies . . .
While, Standing Guard all in time . . .
So but our children might but find a better life realized . . .
All so they will not have to fight. . .
All so that they might sleep peacefully this night . . .
Because, somewhere out there . . .

A TRIBUTE TO MARK E. EVANS

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS-

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 1, 2009

Mr. TOWNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Mark E. Evans who was born in Brent, England on September 5, 1968. At the age of twelve, he and his siblings migrated to the United States to live with his parents in Queens Village, New York. He attended PS 109 Junior High School and Newtown High School.

Following his High School graduation in 1987, Mr. Evans enlisted in the United States Army. He completed Basic Training at Fort Leonardwood, Missouri, as well as his advance military occupational skill training as an Interior Electrician. While on active duty, he was stationed in Fort Campbell, Kentucky, South Korea and Fort McClellan, Alabama. He also served six months in the Middle East during Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

In August 1991, after spending four years on active duty, Mark returned home to Queens Village and attended York College in Queens while maintaining his attachment to the Military as a member of the Army Reserve. He met his wife Sonia through a mutual friend in December 1992 and on August 17, 1997 they were married.

Mark worked full time, attended college and was a Weekend Warrior with the Army Reserve. His hard work and dedication paid off upon receipt of a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology in 1998. In 1999, Mark started the process of becoming a New York City Police Officer. By October 2000, he graduated from the New York City Police Academy, and he was assigned to the 30th Precinct in Harlem. Following 9/11, he was transferred to Manhattan Traffic Task Force, where he would better service the department by effectively managing ground zero. To this day, he continues to patrol the streets of Manhattan.

In his continuation of military service, he served with the 344th Combat Support Hospital in Flushing, New York and 445th Quartermaster Company in Trenton, New Jersey. He was deployed to Iraq where he served one year in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. He is currently serving with the 411th Civil Affairs Battalion in Danbury, Connecticut as the First Sergeant for Headquarters Company. He is expected to deploy to Afghanistan in 2010.

With twenty-two years of military service and ten years as a New York City Police Officer, he is committed to improving our society by serving our nation both domestically and abroad. His dedication to duty, as a father of two (Gordan and Nyah), husband, Soldier and Police Officer is unwavering.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in recognizing Mr. Mark E. Evans.

THE ENVIRONMENTAL HORMONE DISRUPTION ACT AND THE WOM- EN'S ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND DISEASE PREVENTION ACT

HON. LOUISE McINTOSH SLAUGHTER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 1, 2009

Ms. SLAUGHTER. Madam Speaker, today, I'm proud to reintroduce the Environmental Hormone Disruption Act and the Women's Environmental Health and Disease Prevention Act.

Consider for a moment that a women's lifetime risk of breast cancer is 1 in 7 today, compared to 1 in 22 in the 1940s—over half of the cases are unexplained. And, over the last 30 years, the U.S. has seen a steep rise in the occurrence of childhood cancers, testicular cancer, juvenile diabetes, attention deficit disorder, learning disabilities, thyroid disorders, cognitive impairment, and autoimmune disorders. Autism cases alone rose 210 percent between 1987 and 1998.

About 100,000 chemicals are registered for use in the United States. However, 90 percent of these have never been fully tested for their impact on human health. Scientists have found that exposure to these synthetic chemicals disrupts hormone function and contributes to increased incidences of diseases. We already know the tragic impact that diethylstilbestrol, or DES, has had on the daughters of women who took this anti-miscarriage drug prescribed until 1971.

While the evidence is mounting that there is an association between these chemicals and hormone disruption, research remains limited,
